Epilepsy Research Funding Scheme 2012

As part of our ongoing commitment to supporting Irish research, Brainwave - The Irish Epilepsy Association is now inviting applications for epilepsy-focused research projects of up to a three-year duration to a maximum of €50,000 p.a. commencing in December 2012.

Applications are invited on the following areas for 2012:
♦ Psychosocial aspects of epilepsy
♦ Causes or prevention of/ Potential cures for SUDEP
♦ Epilepsy in the Intellectual Disability population
♦ Role/ Impact of the Epilepsy Specialist Nurse
♦ Epilepsy and the older person
♦ Epilepsy and Men

For more information on the application process, see the Research section on our website www.epilepsy.ie or contact:
Peter Murphy
pmurphy.brainwave@epilepsy.ie
01 4557500

Closing date:
Friday January 27th 2012

Brainwave - The Irish Epilepsy Association is the national organisation committed to working for, and to meeting the needs of people with epilepsy in Ireland, their families and carers. Brainwave is the only Irish charity which has consistently provided funds for epilepsy research over a period of many years.

www.epilepsy.ie  CHY No: 6170

Brainwave is a member of the Medical Research Charities Group (MRCG). The highest ranked proposals following a competitive international peer review will be submitted for joint funding under the HRB/MRCG Joint Funding Scheme.