TO THE AUTHORITIES OF POST PRIMARY SCHOOLS

Leaving Certificate: Extension of the RACE Scheme to provide deferred Examinations for Leaving Certificate and Leaving Certificate Applied candidates unable to sit one or more papers in the main sitting in June on grounds of;

- A. Close family bereavement – funeral preparation and attendance.
- B. Serious medical conditions – Accident, injury or illness.

1. Context and Policy

The attention of school authorities is drawn to the important information which follows. The purpose of this circular is to set out the details of an extended scheme of deferred examinations for the 2022 Leaving Certificate within the policy context of the scheme of Reasonable Accommodations at the Certificate Examinations (RACE Scheme). School authorities are asked to familiarise themselves with the content of this circular in order to be able to advise candidates and parents/guardians about this extension to the RACE scheme and the limitations which apply. Specific information for candidates, and parents/guardians is also being provided.

The State Examinations Commission (SEC) provides the RACE Scheme to support candidates with a complex variety of special educational needs including learning difficulties as well as permanent or temporary physical, visual, hearing, medical, sensory, emotional, behavioural or other conditions. In common with similar schemes which operate in other jurisdictions, the focus of the RACE scheme is on the need to remove examination access barriers, while retaining the need to assess the same underlying skills and competencies, and to apply the same standards of achievement, as apply to all other students.

As well as providing accommodations to candidates with permanent and/or enduring special needs, the RACE scheme also provides for emergency situations which occur during the examinations each year such as in the case of students who suffer illness or trauma in the lead up to or during the examinations. There are arrangements that can be made between the SEC and the school in the best interests of an ill or injured candidate to enable the candidate to proceed with their examination on the scheduled date.

It is acknowledged that students experience many forms of trauma and adversity, such as serious illness and bereavement, around the time of the Leaving Certificate examinations. The issues arising here are complex and must be balanced against the need to maintain integrity and public confidence in the examinations system.

To maintain robust examinations and certification procedures and standards, the threshold for access to the deferred Leaving Certificate examinations has been set at an appropriate level and will provide for candidates who experience a close family bereavement at the time of the examinations or for those who have a serious accident, injury or illness issue which renders them unable to take their examinations in the main sitting subject to the strict conditions of eligibility set out below.

It is important to note at the outset that accessing the deferred examinations in line with the arrangements and access criteria set out below is intended to be an action of last resort. Every effort should be made to facilitate and encourage candidates to take their examinations on the scheduled date. Indeed, it is anticipated that many of candidates who would meet the eligibility requirements below will nonetheless take their examinations as scheduled, using, where required, the well-established support arrangements that can be put in place.

2. Deferred Examinations 2022

Until 2019, students who missed their examinations due to bereavement, or for any other reason, had no option but to sit their examinations the following year. Deferred examinations were held for the first time in 2019 for students who experienced bereavement of a close family member.

For the 2022 Leaving Certificate, the SEC will provide deferred examinations, as in 2019, for candidates who experience a close family bereavement at the time of the final written examinations to allow them to defer some examinations in order to prepare for and attend the funeral.

The SEC will also introduce an extended RACE provision for supporting Leaving Certificate and Leaving Certificate Applied candidates unable to sit their examinations in June due to a serious accident, injury or illness

There are eligibility criteria for access to the deferred sitting and these will be strictly applied. The criteria have been determined with due regard to the principles of equity, fairness and integrity which govern all aspects of the examinations system.

The provision will be available in the Leaving Certificate and Leaving Certificate Applied examinations as an acknowledgement that missing examinations at this time would otherwise mean missing out on a college place or a job opportunity and having to wait a full year for the next available opportunity to sit the examinations. No alternative arrangements are available for candidates who are unable to take their Junior Cycle examinations as scheduled.

The number of examinations which may be deferred depends on the grounds on which access is provided. i.e. Bereavement, or Serious Medical Conditions (accident, injury or illness). The conditions of eligibility which apply to each of the grounds of access are set out in this governing circular and will be strictly applied.

Applications must be made as set out below and all decisions made will be by reference to this governing circular.

Under the RACE Scheme, the existing arrangements to support candidates experiencing challenging circumstances at examinations time continue to be available to;

- a. Leaving Certificate candidates who do not meet the eligibility criteria for access to the deferred examinations
- b. Leaving Certificate candidates who meet the eligibility criteria for the deferred examinations but who chose to proceed with the examinations in the main sitting
- c. Junior Cycle candidates

The accommodations that can be made when unforeseen circumstances occur include sitting in an alternative location such as in hospital; access to a small, shared examination centre; rest breaks; alterations to the standard timetable; and the taking of food, drinks or medicines in the centre. These arrangements are detailed in the RACE Instructions for Schools 2022 and in the RACE 2022 – Implementing Access Arrangement during the Written Examinations guide. See Section 4 below.

3. Principles and Requirements

- a) The deferred examinations are for candidates who experience the death of a close family member or a serious accident, injury or illness and, as a result, are unable to take their examinations in the main sitting.
- b) To safeguard integrity and maintain confidence in the Leaving Certificate, access to the deferred examinations will be strictly limited to those genuinely unable to sit their examinations in the main sitting for one of the specified reasons.
- c) The RACE scheme is underpinned by a number of fundamental principles which include ensuring that alternative arrangements do not undermine the integrity, status or reputation of the examinations.
- d) A core principle in the examinations system is ensuring equitable treatment for all candidates. This leads to another principle of the RACE Scheme, which is that any alternative arrangements should not give the candidate for whom they are made an advantage over other candidates.
- e) Therefore, any arrangements that can be made for candidates who miss their examinations for one of the specified reasons must be mindful of the requirement to maintain robust examination and certification procedures and standards.
- f) For this reason, the threshold for access to the deferred Leaving Certificate examinations has been set at a high level. The eligibility criteria have been determined with due regard for the principles of equity, fairness and integrity which govern all aspects of the examinations system.
- g) The criteria for serious medical conditions have been informed by research into international best practice in other jurisdictions with similar examinations systems to Ireland.
- h) School authorities have a critical role in the application process by confirming their support for the application as made and safeguarding the integrity of the examinations.
- i) Candidates will need to present evidence of their inability to sit the examinations during the main sitting so as to establish that they meet the eligibility criteria set out in this circular;
 - i. Candidates who experience bereavement of a close family member will be required to provide evidence of their bereavement.
 - ii. Candidates who experience serious accident, injury or illness (either unexpectedly or a flare up of an existing condition which renders them unable to sit their examinations) will require medical evidence provided by a consultant or, if hospitalised, from a hospital.
 - iii. The medical evidence which is submitted will have to include both evidence of the condition and the degree to which it impacts on their ability to attend for their examinations as scheduled.
- j) These are not second chance examinations and are not available once a candidate has commenced an examination or completed an examination in the main sitting even if it is asserted by a candidate that they were unwell while taking the examinations. If a candidate takes ill after commencing an examination they will not have access to the deferred sitting.
- k) It is important to note, that the deferred sitting is not a repeat examination;
 - If a candidate elects not to avail of this measure and goes ahead with examinations as scheduled in June (in full or in part), they will not be permitted to access the deferred sitting.
 - If a candidate elects to avail of this measure and indicates their intention to present for the deferred sitting then they cannot also sit those same examinations during the original June sittings.
- l) Candidates may not know the decision on foot of their application at the time that they miss an examination. Therefore, candidates need to be fully aware of the strict access criteria as set out in this circular.
- m) Candidates need to be aware that there is a risk that if they miss the main sitting, they may not be eligible to sit an examination at the deferred sitting and they will only be permitted to do so if their application is approved.
- n) Applications will not be approved simply because the candidate has missed an examination in the main sitting in June.

- o) The first examinations of the main sitting are on Wednesday 8 June; the examinations scheduled on this date will, in the deferred sitting, take place on Thursday 30 June. There is a very short time window for the application, decision-making, and appeals processes for the deferred examinations to transact. For this reason, all deadlines will be strictly applied.

4. Supports Available in the June Examinations

All candidates are encouraged to take their examinations as scheduled and every effort will continue to be made by the SEC and by schools to support candidates in taking their examinations in the main sitting.

There are arrangements that can be made between the SEC and the school in the best interests of the candidate to enable the candidate to proceed with their examination on the scheduled date.

Candidates who are ill or injured but who are not eligible for access to the deferred examinations will be able to avail of the longstanding supports available under the RACE Scheme. Candidates who experience bereavement or a serious accident, injury or illness but who decide to continue with their original schedule of examinations will, of course, be entitled to these support arrangements. These supports include;

- access to a shared or an individual special examination centre (depending on need)
- arranging for examination sittings in atypical venues such as in hospitals or at another location or another school
- granting of supervised breaks or rest periods having regard to the physical, medical or emotional condition of the candidate,
- access to food, drink and medicine.
- Amendments to the published timetable provided the examinations take place on the day scheduled on the timetable and appropriate supervision arrangements are in place.

Now that public health restrictions due to Covid-19 have been lifted, hospital sits will also be accommodated. However, once a candidate sits an examination in a hospital, they will not be allowed subsequently to access the deferred sitting of that examination.

5. Limitations on the Deferred Sitting.

A number of caveats are presented in the Principles and Requirements at section 3 above. In addition, in making an application to access the deferred examinations for any of the specified reasons, school authorities, as well as candidates and parents/guardians, should note the following limitations which apply;

There is no contingency for the deferred examinations series. If a candidate is considered eligible for the deferred examinations and remains, or becomes, unwell at the time of the deferred examinations, or experiences a bereavement, or misses their examinations for any other reason (including Covid-19), their next opportunity to sit the Leaving Certificate/Leaving Certificate Applied will be in June 2023. No alternative arrangements will be provided.

The scheduling of Leaving Certificate examinations on the first five days (Thursday 30 June to Tuesday 5 July inclusive including Saturday 2 July) of the deferred examinations is fixed as on the provisional timetable. The remaining examinations are provisionally timetabled on dates from Wednesday 6 July until Saturday 16 July including Saturday 9 and Saturday 16 July. In the case of Leaving Certificate Applied the first day of the timetable (Thursday 30 June) is fixed and the remaining examinations are provisionally timetabled on dates from Friday 01 July until Thursday 07 July including Saturday 02 July. Timetables will be finalised based on demand arising during the main examination.

Candidates must be available to take the deferred examinations over the period noting that the provisional timetables are subject to change. Examinations will be held on all weekdays and all Saturdays in the period of the deferred examinations.

The deferred examinations will be held at a number of regional locations (typically one school per county) and candidates should opt to sit any deferred examinations in the host school location closest to them. Venues may be subject to consolidation depending on the number of candidates ultimately sitting the deferred examinations. Candidates must be aware that their selected host school is subject to change.

Attendance at the deferred examinations is likely to involve travel to another location for the duration of each deferred examination they are due to sit. Candidates taking the deferred examinations will be responsible for their own transportation and accommodation expenses and must be able to make their own arrangements for attending the deferred sitting.

No alternative dates, locations or arrangements will be provided at the request of candidates.

Candidates will only be admitted to the deferred examinations on instruction from the SEC.

6. Eligibility

A. Close Family Bereavement – Funeral Preparation and Attendance.

The purpose of the accommodation is to provide candidates who experience bereavement at examinations time with some time away from their examinations to prepare for and attend the funeral of their loved one without having to contend with the added pressure of their full set of examinations at the same time.

Eligible candidates who experience a close family bereavement will be able to defer up to three days of examinations.

This measure will apply in cases where the death of the close relative (within the definition provided below) occurs during examination time, or in the two days prior to the examinations commencing on 8 June. Therefore, the accommodation will be available in respect of the death of a close relative which occurs on any day in the period Monday 6 June to Tuesday 28 June inclusive.

The candidate will, at their discretion, be able to defer the examinations they were due to take on the day of the funeral, if that falls on a day on which they were scheduled to sit examinations, and two other days.

A candidate may not defer their examinations and also seek an early or late sitting to allow them to attend the funeral. If they seek to defer examinations, then one of the days must be the day of the funeral if the funeral is on a day on which they are due to take their examinations.

The three days do not need to be consecutive, but must fall between the date of death and the day after the date of the funeral. For example, a candidate whose parent dies early on the second Monday of the examinations and whose funeral is taking place on Wednesday may defer their examinations on that Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday or Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

For the purposes of deferred examinations close relatives are defined as one of the following: a father, step-father, mother, step-mother, legal guardian, brother, step-brother, half-brother, sister, step-sister, half-sister, grandfather or grandmother. The scheme also provides for the death of the child, spouse or civil partner of a Leaving Certificate candidate.

B. Serious Medical Conditions – Accident, injury or illness.

Candidates who experience serious accident, injury or illness (either unexpectedly or a flare up of an existing condition which renders them unable to sit their examinations) will be able to defer some or all of their examinations depending on the timing, nature and severity of their condition.

It is not possible to be entirely prescriptive as to the range of conditions which might arise but the following are intended to exemplify the seriousness of the medical conditions and circumstances which will warrant consideration of an application for access to the deferred examinations series.

Type of Serious Accident, Injury or Illness	Examples of conditions which will be considered	Examples of conditions which will not be considered*
Serious illness	Cancer, cardiac conditions.	Gastroenteritis, migraines.
Major surgery at or near the time of the examination	Non-elective major surgery, Transplant, appendectomy.	Any elective surgery.
Severe disease or severe condition event /episode	Sepsis, epilepsy, Crohn's disease, severe asthma attack resulting in hospitalisation.	Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay-fever.
Severe or permanent injury occurring at the time of the examination	Bones breaks requiring hospitalisation at the time of the examination, brain injury, amputation, spinal injury.	Sprains, minor burn injuries, tendon damage, bone breakages which can be accommodated within the existing provisions of the RACE Scheme (e.g. providing access to a recording device/scribe for a candidate with broken arm).
Psychiatric illness	Life threatening mental health episode; detention in a hospital.	Stress, Anxiety, Non-medical trauma.

Unless any of these conditions result in a period of unexpected hospitalisation at the time of the examinations.*

For reasons of examinations integrity, the threshold for evidence is high and evidence will be required from a medical consultant or hospital. Certification, or other evidence, provided by a GP or other medical practitioner will not be considered.

The medical evidence must include both evidence of the condition and the degree to which it impacts on the candidate's ability to attend for their examinations.

Candidates are expected to defer as few examinations as possible and to resume their examinations in the main examinations as soon as they are able.

Any candidate who suffers an accident, injury or illness that is not considered under the deferred scheme will be accommodated under the existing provisions of the RACE Scheme as set out at Section 4 above.

7. Timetable

The deferred examinations series for the June examinations will commence in selected schools (see below) on Thursday 30 June. Leaving Certificate Established examinations are provisionally scheduled to continue until Saturday 16 July. Leaving Certificate Applied examinations are provisionally scheduled to continue until Thursday 7 July. Examinations will be held on Saturdays in the deferred examinations series.

Provisional Timetables for the deferred examinations are at Appendix 1.

To provide the deferred examinations as efficiently and effectively as possible, the timetable for these dates will be finalised based on demand arising during the main examinations and therefore is subject to change as set out below.

Established Leaving Certificate

- The scheduling of examinations on the first five days (Thursday 30 June to Tuesday 5 July inclusive including Saturday 2 July) of the deferred examinations is fixed as on the published Leaving Certificate Established timetable
- The remaining Leaving Certificate Established examinations are provisionally timetabled on dates from Wednesday 6 July until Saturday 16 July including Saturday 9 and 16 July.
- The final Leaving Certificate Established timetable will be published in advance of the first examination of the deferred series.

Leaving Certificate Applied.

- The first day (Thursday 30 June) of the timetable is fixed as on the published timetable.
- The remaining Leaving Certificate Applied examinations are provisionally timetabled on dates from Friday 1 July until Thursday 7 July including Saturday 2 July.
- The final Leaving Certificate Applied timetable will be published in advance of the first examination of the deferred series.

General

Candidates accessing deferred examinations must;

- a. be available during the time window for the deferred examinations and must be available to take the deferred examinations as scheduled on the final timetables;
- b. note that examinations will be held on Saturdays in the deferred examinations period;
- c. be aware that the examinations scheduled on the provisional deferred Leaving Certificate Established timetable from Wednesday 6 July onwards are subject to change;
- d. be aware that the examinations scheduled on the provisional deferred Leaving Certificate Applied timetable from Friday 1 July onwards are subject to change.

8. Venues

It is intended that the deferred examinations will be provided at a number of regionally located schools. Typically, one school in each county will host the deferred examinations. In Dublin, Galway, Cork and Tipperary more than one school will provide the examinations.

Details of the host schools will be provided to school authorities as part of the application process.

It is expected that candidates will sit any deferred examination in the host school location closest to them. When making the online application on the School's Portal, the school authority will be asked to indicate the candidate's preferred host school from the list of schools. It is important to note the selection of the host school is not a guarantee and may be subject to change depending on the number of candidates ultimately sitting the deferred examinations. The SEC reserves the right to alter the host school locations depending on numbers presenting for the examinations.

Candidates must be able to make their own arrangements for attending the deferred sitting and will be responsible for their own transportation and accommodation expenses and the SEC will not entertain requests for sitting these examinations at alternative venues.

The SEC is extremely grateful to the host schools in the Education and Training Board sector and to ETBI for their support in putting in place these arrangements.

9. Application Process

The first examinations of the main sitting are on Wednesday 8 June; the examinations scheduled on this date will, in the deferred sitting, take place on Thursday 30 June. There is a very short time window for the application, decision-making, and appeals processes for the deferred examinations to transact. For this reason, all deadlines will be strictly applied.

Applications for support arrangements under the RACE Scheme are school based and this provision is no different. School authorities have a critical role in the application process confirming their support for the application as made and safeguarding the integrity of the examinations.

The SEC will not accept applications directly from candidates or parents/guardians.¹

The SEC has developed an online application process for schools to apply through the SEC's Schools Portal.

Schools must put in place arrangements for candidates (including external candidates) or parents/guardians to inform the school immediately if they are absent from an examination.

The school authority must make an initial application to the SEC on the School Portal for access to the deferred examination series either before or on the day of the missed examination. At the very latest the initial application must be made on the day of the missed examination in the main sitting.

Candidates whose absence from an examination session is;

1. not reported by the candidate, parent/guardian to the school on or before the date of the absence
- OR
2. not reported by the school authority to the SEC on or before the date of the absence will, irrespective of the reason, be deemed ineligible for access to the deferred examinations.

The school authority will then have 4 working days to complete the full application process which includes providing all of the required evidence, to include, where necessary, appropriate medical evidence or evidence of the bereavement.

As part of the initial application process, the School Principal, or his/her authorised agent will be required to confirm that the application appears to meet the conditions of eligibility and to support the application.

Candidates, parents/guardians and school authorities need to be aware of the criteria and that all applications will be considered against the criteria and subject to formal decision. The application process will require confirmation from the candidate (if over 18) or candidate and parent/guardian (if under 18) of their understanding of the terms on which the application is made. The deferred examinations declaration form RA8/2022 should be completed by the candidate, parent/guardian and the relevant school authority then uploaded by the school to the online application form. A copy of this form is at Appendix 2.

The required medical evidence or evidence of bereavement must also be uploaded to the system to support the application. While medical evidence or evidence of bereavement may need to follow the initial application there is a need for the supporting evidence to be available and uploaded by the school to the portal within 4 working days of the application.

Note on External Candidates

School authorities are required to make applications for the deferred examinations for both school-attending candidates and external candidates sitting examinations in the school. The SEC has provided school authorities and SEC appointed superintendents with details of any external candidates sitting examinations in the school. In this context, it is noted that these are candidates to whom the school authority gave their permission for the candidates to sit their Leaving Certificate examinations in the school.

External candidates have been advised by the SEC that they are responsible for ensuring that they notify the school authority in which they are due to sit examinations of any absences from the examinations or before the date of the absence from the first examination.

Online Application System

The following steps should be followed when making an application:

1. Candidate's, parents/guardians must notify the school immediately if they are absent for an examination.
2. The school authority must make an initial application on behalf of the candidate to the SEC on the School Portal <https://schools.examinations.ie/> at the very latest on the day of the missed examination.
3. As part of the initial application process candidates, parents/guardians and school authorities need to be aware of the criteria and that all applications will be considered against the criteria and subject to formal decision.
4. The deferred examinations declaration form (Form RA8/2022) Section 2 must be completed by the school authority confirming the candidate meets the conditions of eligibility and to support the application.
5. Section 3 should be completed by the candidate (if over 18) or candidate and parent/guardian (if under 18).
6. The online application form must be fully completed by the school authority within 4 working days of the initial application including the upload of Form RA8/2022 and the relevant medical/bereavement evidence.

10. Examinations Integrity

The SEC has a duty to protect the integrity of the examinations. In all cases, the SEC must be satisfied as to the validity of the application and will reserve the right to seek independent proof of the bereavement or serious accident, injury or illness.

The SEC reserves the right to consider and determine whether a Breach of Examinations Regulations has occurred if a candidate claims relief under this provision and is found to have made a false claim. A person aiding a candidate to claim a relief under this provision may be guilty of an offence under Section 52 of the Education Act 1998.

11. Appeal Procedure

In cases where a parent or candidate is dissatisfied with any aspect of the SEC's decision, they will have access to a Deferred Examination Independent Appeals Committee (IAC). All members of the IAC will be drawn from outside the SEC and include those with relevant medical expertise. The remit of the IAC covers appeals against the SEC's decisions on the deferred examinations. Appeals will be considered in light of the published principles, requirements and criteria as set out in this governing circular.

Details of the appeals process, including all relevant deadlines, will be included with the decisions on applications for access to the deferred examinations. Briefly, appeals must be made through the school using the appeals application form (FORM RAAP2) which will be available on request. This form must be completed in full and signed by the candidate, parent/guardian and school authority.

In making an appeal, school authorities, on behalf of candidates and parents/guardians, will be invited to submit all of the evidence available at the time they completed the application.

Appeal decisions will be notified to the candidate's school. If an appeal is being denied then the reasons for the decision of the IAC will be provided. Schools in turn are required to communicate the outcome of the appeal to the candidate and their parents/guardians. To assist schools, the SEC will provide two copies of all decision letters, one copy for the school and one to be given to the candidate/parent/guardian.

Following the completion of an appeal, any candidate, parent/guardian who considers that their case has not been processed correctly, can make a complaint to the Ombudsman (if they are over 18) or to the Ombudsman for Children (if they are under 18).

Again, it should be noted that there is a very short time window for the application, decision-making, and appeals processes for the deferred examinations to transact. For this reason, all deadlines will be strictly applied.

12. Role of All Schools

The host schools in which the deferred Leaving Certificate examinations are being held have been provided separately with details of the support arrangements which will apply.

All schools should be prepared to have a role in the administrative arrangements for the deferred examinations including;

- a. acting, as required, as an examination centre for the LCVP, Computer Science and LCA ICT examinations on the date that will be notified in due course.
- b. Putting in place arrangements to facilitate immediate reporting of absences by candidates/parents/guardians to schools
- c. Completing all stages of the application process including the initial report on or before the first day on which the candidate will be absent from an examination.
- d. Safeguarding the integrity of the Leaving Certificate examination process by standing over all applications made by candidates from the school noting that it is not expected that many candidates will need to avail of the deferred examinations series.

Schools with candidates deemed eligible for access to the deferred examinations and where those candidates have special educational needs and are being provided with reasonable accommodations under the RACE Scheme should be prepared to assist the schools hosting the deferred examinations. For example, in exceptional circumstances a candidate may, as a result of their particular needs, be authorised to work with their SNA as the superintendent of their special examination centre/Reader/Scribe. In addition, special centre superintendents undertaking roles as Readers and Scribes need to have language competences for the language subjects. Schools may be asked to provide these staff to the host school.

As a support for schools in the administration of the deferred examinations application process all schools may claim up to one additional Examinations Aide day. If there are no applications from candidates in a school, then no claim should be made.

Schools required to be open as an examination centre on the date of the deferred examinations in LCVP, Computer Science and the LCA ICT can claim up to two additional Examinations Aide days and otherwise claim for miscellaneous expenses (school-opening; care-taking; cleaning) as provided for under SEC Circular S32/2022 Additional Resources and Payment Arrangements to Schools to Support the Running of the State Examinations 2022.

13. Reasonable Accommodations

Candidates who were granted an accommodation in the main examinations will automatically receive the same accommodation in the deferred examinations. It is important the school indicates this when applying on behalf of the candidate on the online application form. The candidate's school must also be available to support the candidate throughout the deferred examinations in the ETB school they are assigned to. School authorities can contact the Deferred Examinations section of the SEC at 090 644 2783 to seek advice and assistance in relation to reasonable accommodations.

14. Results

The SEC will endeavour to deliver the deferred Leaving Certificate examinations results at the same time as the main examination results. There will be no difference for the candidate or for the end users of the results (CAO, etc.) between results attained in June and those attained in the deferred examinations series.

15. Review

The development of the RACE scheme extension to support students experiencing bereavement and serious accident, injury and illness at examinations time has been informed by academic research undertaken on behalf of the SEC. In light of experience at the 2022 Leaving Certificate, the SEC intends to review the extension of the RACE Scheme to provide deferred examinations on these grounds, following the conclusion of the 2022 examinations

Provisional Deferred Examinations Timetables

The dates highlighted in blue on the timetables below are provisional and subject to change. The timetable for these examinations will be finalised based on demand arising during the main examinations. Candidates seeking to sit the deferred examinations need to ensure they will be available during this time period and must be available to take the deferred examinations as scheduled on the final timetable.

Deferred Examinations Timetable

Each candidate should note carefully the dates and hours, as fixed on this official timetable, for the examinations in the subjects in which he/she intends to present himself/herself. The Commission will not be responsible for any errors which may occur in the reproduction of this timetable by outside agencies. Candidates are required to be in attendance at least half an hour before the examination begins in the subject in which they first present themselves.

SECTION 3. DECLARATION BY CANDIDATE AND PARENT/GUARDIAN.

Declaration by Parent/Guardian and Candidate

I declare that I believe I am eligible for access to the deferred examinations as detailed in the governing SEC Circular 34/22 and have provided the supporting evidence as required.

I consent to:

- a) This application being made on my behalf under the Deferred Examinations principles, requirements and criteria as set out in SEC Circular S34/22.
- b) The school making all necessary information available to the State Examinations Commission (SEC).
- c) My personal details as provided on this form being used by the SEC to contact me about any aspect of this application or the deferred examination sitting.

I acknowledge that:

- a) I am aware of the risk that if I am absent from the main sitting, I may not be eligible to sit an examination at the deferred sitting and will only be permitted to do so if my application is approved.
- b) All required supporting documentation must be supplied to make this application valid.
- c) That the SEC must be satisfied as to the validity of the application and will reserve the right to seek independent proof of the bereavement or serious accident, injury or illness.
- d) The deferred examinations will be held in a reduced number of schools across the country and I will make myself available to attend the location assigned to me.
- e) I accept that the location of the venue could change at short notice.
- f) I am responsible for all travel expenses for attending the deferred examinations.
- g) The timetable is subject to change; I note it is fixed for the first 5 days, 30 June – 5 July then provisional from 6 July – 16 July. I will make myself available on any date during this time as required.
- h) Examinations will be held on Saturdays during the deferred examination period.
- i) That if I am considered eligible and miss the deferred examinations for any reason my next opportunity to sit the Leaving Certificate/Leaving Certificate Applied will be in June 2023. There is no contingency for the deferred examinations and no alternative arrangements will be provided.

I acknowledge that the SEC has a duty to protect the integrity of the examinations and the right to review the evidence and information in support of any and all applications. I note the SEC reserves the right to seek independent proof of the bereavement or illness.

The SEC reserves the right to consider and determine whether a Breach of Examinations Regulations has occurred if a candidate claims relief under this provision and is found to have made a false claim. A person aiding a candidate to claim a relief under this provision may be guilty of an offence under Section 52 of the Education Act 1998.
