

Epilepsy Ireland National Conference 2026

Directions to Cork International Hotel

If you are joining us at our National Conference 2026, here is some useful information to know so you can get to the Cork International Hotel once you arrive in Cork.

From Kent Train Station:

If you are coming from train station, the 225 Haulbowline bus leaves from the Kent Train Station bus stop on Alfred Street at twenty minutes past the hour, every hour. The 226 to Kinsale bus also leaves from Kent Station at ten to the hour, every hour. Both buses will drop you at Cork Airport Business Park (North), outside the Cork International Hotel. Alternatively, there is also a taxi rank available at Kent Train Station just outside the main doors.

Cork Aircoach or Citylink Bus:

For those coming to Cork by Aircoach or Citylink bus, you will be dropped on the Lower Glanmire Road – opposite the Leisureplex. You can also get the 225 Haulbowline bus or the 226 Kinsale bus to the conference. To get to the bus stop walk towards the river, cross the bridge, and make your way to the Parnell Place bus station - which will be in front of you.

The 225 Haulbowline bus leaves Parnell Place at twenty-three minutes past the hour, every hour.

The 226 Kinsale bus leaves the station at seven minutes to the hour, every hour.

There is also a taxi rank at the bus station where you will be able to get taxis. It is advised to book in advance if you do intend to get to the conference by taxi.

To return to the city after the conference, you can take the 225 or the 226 bus. The destination for both buses will be Kent Train Station.

Driving

The Eircode for the hotel is T12 H516 and there is hotel parking available for anyone who wishes to drive to the conference. Cork International Hotel Google Maps

We look forward to seeing you at our conference this year!